† Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(b) To strengthen domestic textile industry for meeting the growing global competition, the following important announcements has been made in the Union Budget 2004-05:

— Except for mandatory excise duty on polyester filament yarn including texturised yarn, synthetic and artificial fibres and synthetic and artificial filament yarns, the whole value addition chain has been given excise exemption option.

— Additional Excise Duty on Textiles & Textile Articles (AT &T) and Additional Excise Duty (Goods of Special Importance) Act have been abolished.

— Basic customs duty on various textile machinery and spare parts has been reduced to 5%.

— Beside, Government has been taking a number of steps from time to time to boost textile exports including knitwears and shawls from the country. Some of the important initiatives taken are:

i. The Government has de-reserved the woven segment of readymade garment from the SSI sector. It has also raised the SSI investment limit for knitted segment of Rs. 5 crores.

ii. The Technology Upgradation Fund Scheme (TUFS) has been made operational from 1-4-1999 to facilitate the modernisation and upgradation of the sector.

iii. Weaving, processing and garment machinery, which are covered under TUFS, have been extended the facility of accelerated depreciation at the rate of 50%. Cost of machinery has also been reduced through Fiscal Policy mesures. This further encourages modernisation.

iv. With a view to making fabric production competitive, the customs duty on shuttleless looms has been brought from 15% to 5%.

National Institute for Fashion Technology (NIFT), its six branches and Apparel Training & Design Centres (ATDCs) are running various courses/programmes to meet skilled manpower requirements of textile industry especially apparel in the field of design, merchandising and marketing.

vi. Facilities by way of eco-testing laboratories have been created to enable exporters to get the garments/textiles pre-tested for conforming to the requirements of importing countries.

vii. The Government has launched a centrally sponsored scheme titled "Apparel Park for Export Scheme" for imparting focused thrust for setting up of apparel manufacturing units of international standards at potential growth centres and to give fillip to exports.

viii. For upgrading infrastructure facilities at important textile centres, a scheme Textile Centre Infrastructure Development Scheme' (TCIDS) has been launched.

ix. The Export Promotion Councils have been undertaking export promotion events like participation in overseas exhibitions/fairs, organizing BSMs abroad, sponsoring trade delegations in consultation with Indian Mission at abroad.
